

Councilmember Steve Goble

Councilmember Steve Goble was elected to the El Cajon City Council in November, 2016.

Councilmember Goble was raised in El Cajon and has lived in the city for over 25 years. A graduate of Grossmont High School and Grossmont College, he earned a Bachelor of Science and Master's degree in Business Administration from San Diego State University.

Councilmember Goble currently serves as Senior Vice President of a San Diego-based franchisor of business service center/freight shipping brands, with over 650 locations across the U.S. and over 150 internationally.

He also has served in leadership positions with the Salvation Army, the Make A Wish Foundation, SDSU's College of Business/Department of Marketing, and Partnerships With Industry, a non-profit organization helping adults with developmental disabilities gain employment.

Councilmember Goble's personal mission for serving on the City Council is "to increase the quality of life for the residents and businesses of El Cajon and to attract those who aren't."
